SUMMARY

Performs specialized clerical duties to maintain and process records and forms in direct support of Public Health departmental programs and the Public Health Nursing Clinic; answers varied questions regarding departmental policies, procedures and services; does related work as required. An employee in this classification performs specialized clerical functions. Although an incumbent will perform many of the same duties as a Department Assistant, they are also responsible for handling clerical functions requiring a specific knowledge of the departmental and clinic operations, policies, procedures, terminology and governing laws. An employee in this classification will be required to utilize discretion and judgment in the application of departmental guidelines and governing laws and regulations to perform assigned tasks. Work is performed under supervision of the Public Health Director and the Nursing Supervisor, with little or no instruction as to manner of performance. Supervision is not normally a responsibility of positions in this classification.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

This position has no supervisory duties.

QUALIFICATIONS

To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily. The requirements listed are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required. Considerable knowledge of different filing systems including alphabetical, numerical and chronological; business English, spelling and punctuation; general office practices and procedures; recordkeeping. Some knowledge of the operations, policies, terminology and governing laws of the assigned department. Excellent public relations skills and ability to remain calm, professional and friendly in adverse situations.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

High school graduation or equivalency; and two years of experience performing clerical work, preferably including experience and/or training in the operation of the particular assigned department; or any satisfactory combination of experience and training which demonstrates the knowledge, skills and ability to perform the above described duties.

JOB IMPACT

The most common consequence of error would involve financial loss due to improper processing of billings and payments and/or maintenance of records; possible litigation; and/or public embarrassment.

TYPICAL PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED

Problems encountered generally revolve around the interpretation and application of governing laws and regulations in responding to questions from the general public or in completing assignments; and in dealing tactfully and appropriately with the public and/or clients who may be irate or difficult.

JOB CONTACTS

This position generally has contact with the general public; other agencies, including social service, state and federal agencies; and with other County departments.

LANGUAGE SKILLS

Ability to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing; establish and maintain effective working relationships with other employees and the public; read and interpret documents such as operating and maintenance instructions, and procedure manuals; write routine reports and correspondence; and communicate effectively.
